

EAST, WEST, AND SOUTH.

United in One Respect.

There may be differences of opinion regarding some subjects in sections of the country remote from each other, but there is none respecting the best remedy for piles, as witness the letters below:

"I have been feeling so good I could hardly believe it, after suffering with piles for a year, to find that I am once more feeling like myself. I wish you could have seen me before I started using Pyramid Pile Cure and look at me now, and you would say I am not the same man. I have gained 20 pounds, and all on account of Pyramid Pile Cure." Walter Sharkley, 56 Park St., Springfield, Mass.

"I bought a fifty cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure and used as directed with the most unexpected results, a complete cure. I have been troubled with piles for thirty years and was in much distress and passed much blood, but at present am free from any kind of piles." F. McKay, Weaverville, Cal.

"Pyramid Pile Cure has been worth thousands of dollars to me; it cured me after using numbers of others remedies and taking medicines from doctors. It also cured my son, although he could hardly walk, eat or sleep; he is now all right." B. Stringfellow, Postmaster, Elkton, S. C.

One thousand dollars is offered by the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., to any one who will show the above testimonials to be not genuine.

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists for fifty cents a package and every sufferer should buy a package and try it tonight, being careful to accept no substitutes, and bearing in mind the fact that there is nothing else "just as good."

TIRED AGAIN.

May Yohe Reported to Want Divorce From Capt. Strong.

New York, Jan. 19.—May Yohe, model and past mistress of palchritude and discretion, has once more tired of the ties that bind her legally to Putnam Bradlee Strong, and, on her own assertion, made in a public place, is suing him for divorce in order that she may once more be free as the wind which bloweth as it listeth.

In just what manner Mr. Strong has offended remains a secret among a limited and favored few; but the impression, fostered by a few ill-guarded words of Miss Yohe's, appears to be that he has failed in the primal duty of a husband and has not supported his wife in the style to which she has been accustomed.

At present Mr. Strong is fighting off the vicious fogs of London, while his wife reclines upon a couch at the Cumberland Hotel, suffering from a dislocated or sprained ankle.

Miss Yohe said she had instructed her attorneys to serve Mr. Strong with the preliminary papers in a divorce action she was bringing against him in the New York courts.

Apparently she regretted making this assertion soon after, for she has maintained an absolute silence regarding it since.

Accidentally Shot.

Campbell Hill, Ill., Jan. 19.—Louis Benson, a fur dealer of Pinckneyville, was accidentally shot by E. R. Rushing, near this village. Benson and Rushing were walking across a field, when Rushing slipped on the ice and fell. The shotgun he was carrying was discharged, taking effect in Benson's leg, necessitating amputation.

BOARD OF WORKS

REGULAR MEETING HELD YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Three Thousand Dollars Will Be Asked for New Dynamos for the Light Plant.

The regular meeting of the board of public works was held yesterday afternoon but only two members were present, Messrs. Noble and Rineckoff. There was little business for consideration, but it was decided to ask the general council for a special appropriation of $3,000, in addition to the $10,000 needed to run the city light plant, for two new dynamos. The board realizes that Paducah's light service is inadequate, and asked for $15,000 originally, for improvements. This was refused by the council, and the board of works will now ask for $3,000.

The question of paying the bituminous contractors for Broadway did not come up last night, Engineer Washington not having made his report.

CAUGHT AGAIN.

Convict Who Escaped Through a Sewer Recaptured.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 19.—Under the name of John Harris and to serve a term of from two to fourteen years for entering a house to commit a felony, a new arrival at the Indiana reformatory at Jeffersonville this morning proved to be Ralph Gatewood, who left the institution Thursday evening, August 4, 1904, in company with a Parker, who is still at large. While being marched to supper they escaped from the ranks and disappeared into the manhole of a sewer leading to the Ohio river, nearly two miles away. The sewer was partially filled, and it was the belief they would die. A guard was sent to the end that forms the outlet into the river and he saw a shawl and a cap float out. The next morning it was discovered that the men had burrowed out a short distance from the reformatory. Gatewood was arrested in Anderson and tried under the name of Harris. He was not recognized until he reached the reformatory, where Assistant Superintendent Barnes recognized him.

BILLS IN CONGRESS ON MANY SUBJECTSONE INTRODUCED RELATIVE TO INAUGURATION OF PRESIDENT.

Measure Proposed to Change Date of Elections and for the Convening of Congress.

POSTOFFICE BILL REPORTED.

Washington, Jan. 19.—A joint resolution introduced by Representative Sherman, of New York, provides for the appointment of a committee of three senators and three representatives whose duty it shall be to arrange hereafter for the inauguration of the president. Power is given the committee to provide such ceremonies and functions as in its wisdom may be deemed proper and fitting. Provision is made for a detail of clerks from the departments to perform the necessary clerical work. All funds derived from the sale of privileges or from other sources by the committee shall be turned into the treasury to be credited to the inauguration fund, for which $100,000 is apportioned by the resolution, the appropriation not to be available until June 1, 1909.

At the hearing before the house committee on election of president, vice-president and representatives in congress on a bill to fix the date of congressional elections on the first Tuesday in September and the time for convening congress in October, Representative Livingston, of Georgia, said objection to the measure would come from those who go to Europe and do not care to return to this country before October. He said if nothing more was accomplished than the breaking up of "this European business" that would be something gained. He said the bill would equalize the sessions. Time was not given at the short session now provided for the proper scrutiny of appropriation bills. Speaking of the inaugural date he said it was an outrage to bring people to Washington on March 4, because of the weather that usually prevails at that time.

The house committee on post-offices and post roads reported the postoffice appropriation bill. It carries $189,781,993, the principal details of which have been published heretofore.

The secretaries of war, state and navy have declined to permit the buildings of their departments to be used as temporary quarters for troops which attend the inauguration on the ground that such occupancy is prohibited by a recent act of congress. The inaugural committee will probably appeal to congress for a temporary suspension of the prohibitory act. If this plan does not succeed the army will be asked to furnish tents, etc., for a camp on the monument grounds for the visiting militia.

Representative Williams, of Mississippi, introduced a bill providing for the convening of congress on the first Monday after March 4 each year, the proposed law to take effect March 6, 1905.

A bill was introduced by Representative Shackelford requiring the inter-state commerce commission to publish January 1, 1905, the classification of freight articles and rules, regulations and conditions for freight transportation to be known as the "national freight classification."

GEN. LEW WALLACE

Is Better and Has Begun Smoking Again.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Jan. 19.—Gen. Lew Wallace is working several hours a day on his autobiography and has brought it down to near the close of the civil war.

Gen. Wallace says that his health has materially improved of late, and he has confidence that his strength will be, in a large measure, regained by the coming of warm weather.

"I have begun smoking again," he said. "I am satisfied that, far from having a deleterious effect, it has really helped me. On my physician's order I gave up smoking five years ago. Only a confirmed smoker who has gone through a similar experience can tell what I suffered."

A FINE PLAY.

"Everyman" a Treat and Never Fails to Draw Well.

A real treat is in store for Paducah theater-goers when "Everyman" is presented at the Kentucky shortly. This play draws immense audiences everywhere. Manager English will close the gallery on that night, and only the balcony and down stairs seats will be sold.

A Henderson man who has witnessed the play says in the Gleaner: We do not often have an opportunity of seeing a play as good as the reign of Edward IV, but very soon Mr. Hallam promises to present "Everyman," the interesting production which has been the sensation of two seasons in London and New York.

It is a strange experience this attempt to put one's self in relation with this old time literary work, so unique in setting and so oddly at variance with our daily life. It has been termed by a great critic "one of the most perfect allegories ever formed," and the praise is not extravagant, for the texture of the plot is simple and strong, in strict keeping with its stern and serious theme.

Death summons Everyman and grants him permission to take his friends to bear him company; Fellowship is ready to do anything for him, but when he hears of Death withdraws. "If you had asked me to drink or die or kill a man with you, I would have done it—but this, no!"

Kindred passes by and his Goods are so close-packed away they cannot stir; while Gold mocks him.

Then Everyman bethinks him of his Good Deeds—she replies, for Good Deeds is a woman:

Here I lie cold in the ground. Thy sins have me so fast bound, That I cannot stir.

Nevertheless she does him service and bids have recourse to Knowledge and Knowledge sends him to Confession. Then Everyman goes on his journey with the aid of Strength, Discretion, Beauty and Five Wits. Each in turn forsakes him at the grave—Good Deeds alone knows no fear.

This Moral Play, or Morality as it is sometimes called, is quaint in diction, archaic in sentiment and of surpassing literary value.

Mr. Hallam deserves the thanks of students, teachers and of all lovers of literature.

$15,000 IN SACKS.

But the Would-be Robber Was Frustrated.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—A daring attempt to rob mails was made last night in front of the Masonic Temple in the heart of the business section of the city.

The methods employed by the robber were an exact duplicate of those used two years ago when a mail wagon standing in the same place as the wagon stood last night was robbed of $10,000. Last night, however, the robber was forced to make his escape without obtaining any of the mail. The collector left the wagon last night and went inside the building to collect the mail. He was not gone more than a minute but in that time the robber mounted the wagon and drove off. John Longeman, superintendent of mails, gave chase in an express wagon and driving furiously for several blocks gained so rapidly on the robber that he was forced to jump from the mail wagon and escape. There was $15,000 in the mail sacks, but none was taken.

The Good Old Way.

A severe cold or attack of Jaeger is like a fire, the sooner you combat it the better your chances are to overpower it. But few mothers in this age are willing to do the necessary work required to give a good old-fashioned reliable treatment such as would be administered by their grandmothers, backed by Boschee's German Syrup, which was always liberally used in connection with the home treatment of colds and is still in greater household favor than any known remedy. But even without the application of the old-fashioned aids German Syrup will cure a severe cold in quick time. It will cure colds in children or grown people. It relieves the congested organs, allays the irritation, and effectively stops the cough. Any child will take it. It is invaluable in a household of children. Trial size bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by DuBois, Kolb & Co.

BRYAN DECLINES

Declares He Has Not Time to Devote to Institution's Affairs.

Jacksonville, Ill., Jan. 19.—William J. Bryan spent the entire day in conference with trustees of the Illinois college in this city. He was elected chairman of the board, and on assuming the duties of that office told the trustees that he could not consider accepting the presidency of the college at this time, as he had not the time to give to it. A committee, consisting of William J. Bryan, Richard Yates, late governor of Illinois, and Judge Owen P. Thompson, was appointed to select a new president.
